criticise	curiosity	definite	desperate	determined

The words on the next slide are all words we should know how to spell in years 5 and 6.

Your task with these words today, is to get a partner/family member to choose a word and test you on them.

Once you have practiced spelling some of the words, you then need to come up with some silly sentences in your book using any of the 5/6 spelling words.

Look on the last slide for some examples of silly sentences.

The ancient stomach was a marvellous soldier.

A queue of aggressive yachts, stood outside a restaurant.

An amateur secretary sat on a variety of vegetables.

The relevant bruise was available on the neighbour and was causing a hindrance to the environment.
