

Friday 5th March 2021 Week 8

Reading Lesson 1

Enjoy reading the book East of the Sun through now with someone at home. Talk about the story together.

You have been learning about adjectives this week.

Looking through the book and see how many adjectives can you spot? Are you a super spotter?

To get you started: Pages 2 and 3 = poor, white, rich and big

Take a photograph and send your work in so we can mark it.

Maths Lesson 2

Adding and subtracting 10 from a 2 digit number with Miss Hughes.

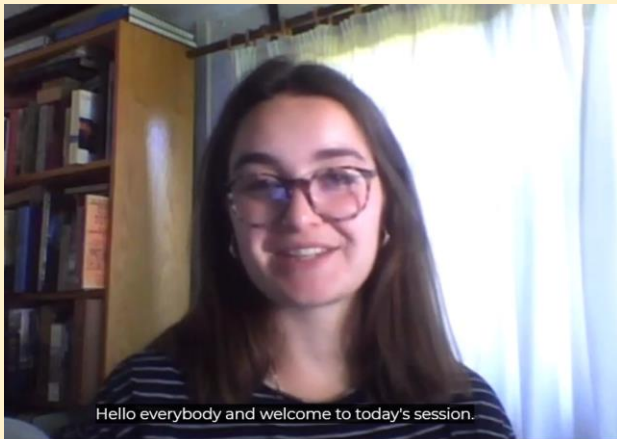

Write the answers down as you go and send a photograph of your work to us please.

History - The Great Fire of London
Lesson 3
Practical task

You could make a mini house and attach coloured paper/tissue paper to illustrate the fire. One house would be fine.

or

If you would like to you could make a mini house (you don't have to make a whole row like this). Then with full adult supervision, you could set it on fire to illustrate what happened in a VERY SAFE place outdoors. This task is often done schools as a culmination or a WOW opening to a topic.

If you would prefer to draw a picture, we would love to see these too.

SPaG - Adjectives Lesson 4

See the separate attachment - 'Draw a monster'.

Make up your very own monster and have fun using lots of adjectives to describe it as you make it. You don't need to write any of them down, just use the adjectives in your speech.

Draw Your Monster

Now it's your turn to create your very own monster!

Decide on the size and shape of your monster.

Then, add the features.

Finally, choose the colours to complete your creation.
